THE RIGHT TO INTELLECTUAL AMBITION

No man has earned the right to intellectual ambition until he has learned to lay his course by a star which he has never seen—to dig by the divining rod for springs which he may never reach. In saying this I point to that which will make your study heroic. For I say . . . that to think great thoughts you must be heroes as well as idealists. Only when you have worked alone . . . and in hope and in despair have trusted to your unshaken will—then only will you have achieved.—JUSTICE OLIVER W. HOLMES.
